The photographer

MY LOVE FOR PHOTOGRAPHY WAS IGNITED IN MY TEENAGE YEARS WHEN HIS FATHER GIFTED HIM A CAMERA, AND CHRIS BEGAN DOCUMENTING LIFE THROUGH THE LENS. ALTHOUGH HIS PASSION FOR PHOTOGRAPHY SIMMERED QUIETLY DURING HIS TIME AS A JAPANESE CHEF, IT WASN'T UNTIL A BREAK FROM THE CULINARY WORLD THAT HE REDISCOVERED HIS TRUE CALLING BEHIND THE CAMERA. MY WORK HAS BEEN EXHIBITED IN SWITZERLAND AND THE UK. WORKED WITH A TV PRODUCTION COMPANY FOR THE BBC CHANNEL 5, AND INTERNATIONAL BRANDS

Testimony:

"Our engagement photos felt so natural and fun. Chris captured moments we will treasure forever."

"Chris managed to capture every heartfelt moment without us even noticing – the results are simply breathtaking."

Our Customers

A black and white photograph of a wedding couple in a grand, historic room. The bride, wearing a long, ornate lace gown and a full veil, holds a large bouquet of flowers. The groom is in a suit. They are standing on a large, patterned rug, facing each other in a romantic pose. The room features high ceilings, large wooden doors, and a large window with Gothic-style tracery. Sunlight streams in from the window, creating long shadows on the floor. A small informational display stand is visible in the background to the right.
